

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Kimberly Ann Fridley has been bringing laughter, sunshine, fresh air and youth to the Governor's office since she became a member of my staff last summer; and,

WHEREAS, Kim has performed her duties in my office with a willingness and cheerful attitude unrivaled by anyone on the staff; and,

WHEREAS, Kim has completed her studies at my alma mater, Riggs High School, and will graduate from that institution on Sunday, May 27, 1984, just three short years after I was granted my own high school diploma; and,

WHEREAS, As Kim crosses the dais at Hollister Field to claim the diploma that is hers by virtue of her pursuit of knowledge, she does so with the best wishes of her family, her office family, and her many friends; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of the special accomplishments and milestones in the lives of his staff and "family" members:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 27, 1984, as in South Dakota, and I extend the congratulations of the people of South Dakota to a fine young lady who has been a dedicated, loyal public servant for the past nine months, and who will continue to enrich our State merely by her citizenship here.

ATTEST:

Alice Kundert
ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-first Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Four
